

Democrats in Statement on Liquor Vote

In view of the announcement which appeared in the Hope Star and was given over KXAR by the County GOP, on Sept. 19, stating that they planned to become involved in the proposed wet-dry election in Bois d' Arc Township, Vincent W. Foster, Chairman of the Hempstead County Democratic Campaign Committee, issued the following statement:

"On September 17 W. S. Atkins, as Chairman of the Hempstead County Board of Election Commissioners, requested an Official Opinion from Frank Holt, Attorney General of the State of Arkansas, as to whether the question of the legal sale of liquor in Bois d' Arc Township could legally appear on the November General Election Ballot.

"We Democrats have been and are still of the opinion that the question of the legal sale of liquor in Bois d' Arc Township cannot legally be placed on the ballot and there will not be any election and therefore no necessity of a campaign in Bois d' Arc Township for or against the question.

"Furthermore, the Democrats of Hempstead County are law abiding citizens who respect the due process and application of Arkansas laws and the interpretations of same by the Attorney General of Arkansas. Therefore, we await the opinion of the Attorney General which we are confident will be that Attempt to Place The Sale of Liquor in Bois d' Arc Township on The Ballot in The November Election is illegal and thereby end the matter without any further ado."

"The fact that the Republicans have rushed head-long into an election that may never come off shows how little they know about matters of government," Mr. Foster concluded.

UN Plane Carrying 10 Falls in Congo

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga (AP)—Wreckage was sighted today of a U.N. reconnaissance plane carrying 10 Swedes reported shot down over Katanga Thursday.

A report to the Swedish defense ministry in Stockholm said seven aboard were known to have survived the crash—four of them unhurt. One man was killed. The fate of the other two was not immediately determined.

Robert K. A. Gardiner, chief of U.N. operations, who had advised the Katanga government by letter that search operations would start today, warned:

"If the helicopters should be harassed in any way, escorting jet fighters will immediately open fire on any movement."

Katanga president Moise Tshombe replied that orders had been given to his forces to avoid incidents.

Tshombe charged that the plane was downed by Congolese central government troops stationed in Katanga.

He said he was willing to "get together the necessary elements for an inquiry."

"For several days past," Tshombe said, "we have informed the public of Congolese troop concentrations in north Katanga."

"We believe U.N. denials of any operations in north Katanga but have good information that another attack is planned."

A U.N. spokesman in Leopoldville said it was "absolutely certain" the twin-engine transport had been shot down.

Tshombe has accused the United Nations of airlifting troops into his province to attempt to take it over. The United Nations had denied the charge.

U.N. efforts to reunite the rich secessionist province with the central Congo government have faltered in the past month.

Foreign Aid Cut Called False Economy by Rusk

M. C. Lewis, Jr.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk today described a deep husband cut in foreign aid appropriations as "a false and costly economy" and appealed to the Senate for its restoration.

Rusk also told reporters a House amendment to cut off foreign aid to any country whose ships carry goods of any kind to Cuba would put this country "in a straitjacket" in dealing with allies.

"It's very important that this amendment come out," Rusk said.

On money matters Rusk devoted himself to the $1.1 billion cut voted by the House Thursday night for the basic foreign aid program, trimming it nearly a fourth below the requested $4.9 billion.

The over-all appropriation, also covering such related matters as Cuban refugee aid, was cut nearly $1.4 billion to $5,956,852,000.

Rusk made his comments in talking with newsmen just before he went before a closed session of the Senate Appropriations Committee.

The most restrictive of the House provisions on Cuban commerce would deny foreign aid to a country whose ships carry trade of any kind to that Communist-controlled country.

Another, by Rep. Thomas M. Pelly, R-Wash., was aimed at nations whose vessels transport arm or strategic materials to the Castro regime. Pelly said West Germany, Greece, Italy and Great Britain would be included in this category.

The amendments apparently caught the administration by surprise since there was no reference to them in Rusk's prepared testimony which was released to newsmen shortly after he, Fowler Hamilton, administrator of the Agency for International Development and Gen. Willson B. Palmer, director of military assistance abroad, appeared before the committee.

The House turned a deaf ear to President Kennedy in passing the chopped-down money bill. Not a voice was raised to support the President's contention that the cut in this year's appropriations "poses a threat to free world security."

With anti-Cuban feelings running high, three amendments aimed at choking off shipments to the Castro government got shouting votes of approval.

The appropriations measure now goes to the Senate, which has made it a practice to restore sizable portions of House cuts in foreign aid. As for the Cuban amendments, both the Senate and the President would have to approve before they could become law.

The House leadership, sensing sentiment for even deeper cuts in the $5,956,852,000 bill, decided to force a floor fight to salvage the funds axed from the measure by the House Appropriations Committee.

The bill was waved to the Senate on a roll call vote of 249-144. The measure drew the support of 174 Democrats and 75 Republicans.

Fulbright, Foe to Speak at Jonesboro

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP)—Attention in the U.S. Senate race between Sen. J. William Fulbright and Republican Kenneth Jones centers on Jonesboro tonight with both candidates scheduled to speak a block apart.

Fulbright will attend a 7 p.m. regional Democratic rally and later will speak at the Milner-Noble Hotel. Jones will speak at 7:30 p.m. from the balcony of the Elks Lodge, across the street from the Craighead County Court House.

Supporters of the candidates said it was coincidence that both men would appear in the same town at the same time.

Jones, in a television speech from Memphis Thursday night, continued his broadside attack on the Democratic Party in general and Fulbright in particular.

He said the Democratic Party should be known as the "International Socialist Party" and he linked Fulbright with a liberal group which he said runs the national party.

Jones said the April 1961 Cuban invasion failed because of Fulbright and "other liberal advisors close to an inexperienced president."

Fulbright, addressing a Little Rock civic club Thursday, said he did not understand how anyone could take Jones' campaign seriously.

He referred to Jones' repeated contentions that the real danger to the American way of life is in Washington, not Moscow.

Fulbright said the relationship between the federal government and the state is a partnership which benefits the states.

Puerto Rico Holds Up Cuban Sugar

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)—A Puerto Rican court has attached an $800,000 Cuban sugar cargo aboard a British freighter bound for the Soviet Union. The Soviets and British were expected to fight the order today.

The Soviet-chartered Streatham Hill, which called here for minor repairs, was ordered held and her 120,000-bag cargo unloaded after a representative of the Terry Kane heavy machinery firm of Miami, Fla., appealed to a superior court in San Juan.

The Dade County, Fla., court awarded Kane's firm $883,578 damages July 2, 1961, for nationalization of its holdings in Cuba.

Attorneys for the freighter said they will seek to lift the attachment, probably on grounds that the sugar was bought and paid for by the Soviet Union and is no longer Cuban property.

Legal experts here expressed belief the Soviet Union also will fight the order through its embassy in Washington.

Isias Rodriguez Moreano, who requested the attachment on behalf of the Kane firm, said he expected the Soviets might claim title to the cargo.

"In the meanwhile, we have the sugar and plan to fight for it," he said.

The disputed cargo nearly went up in smoke Thursday night when fire of unknown origin broke out in a hold of the freighter. Dozens of fire fighters brought the blaze under control, but the hold still smoldered.

The Puerto Rican court order will detain the vessel until the sugar is unloaded. Then she presumably will be free to leave.

The Streatham Hill's captain, Walter C. Whitting, said the Soviet Union chartered the vessel for a year and the contract still has a month to go.

The freighter made port in San Juan last month after a hole was cut in her hull when she scraped a reef near Grand Turk Island while en route from Cuba to the Soviet Union.

Sarasota Hit by 14 Inches of Rainfall

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A storm swamped Sarasota with more than 13 inches of rain Thursday. Flood waters up to three feet accumulated, police reported, and power and water services were disrupted in some areas. Several persons were evacuated from their homes.

Gusts of 40 m.p.h. tore down tree limbs and caused power failures in some parts of Miami.

Close to six inches of rain worried farmers in the Everglades.

Rainfall measured almost 8 inches in Fort Myers and topped 15 inches in St. Petersburg, Tampa, Orlando and Naples. More than 2 inches fell in Miami.

Light to moderate frost nipped many districts in the Northeastern quarter of the country. The mercury dived below the freezing level in dozens of communities. Many posted record lows for Sept. 21.

Widespread frost occurred in New England. The first frost of the season whitened sections of Garrett and Allegheny counties in Maryland, and may have killed garden vegetables in Washington County.

The 30 in Albany, N.Y., was the lowest ever recorded at this time of the year.

Marks elsewhere included Buynville, N.Y., 24, Oakland, Md., 25, Bennington, Vt., 26, Watertown, N.Y., 27, Lebanon, N.H., and Old Town, Maine, 29, Lansing, Mich., 32, Milwaukee 33, Raleigh and Durham, N.C., 41.

Won't Pay Any of Congo Cost, Russia Says

By WILLIAM N. OATIS

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—In advance of an important policy address today to the U.N. General Assembly, Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko served notice his government will not pay one cent to support the U.N. force in the Congo.

Gromyko indicated he might deal with U.N. finances in his address, which is expected to range over a wide area of cold war issues, including charges of U.S. aggressive designs on Cuba.

The Soviet foreign minister's address will be part of the 108-nation assembly's general policy debate.

Gromyko's views on U.N. financing clashed with those of Adlai E. Stevenson, chief U.S. delegate. Stevenson told the assembly Thursday it should affirm "a policy of collective financial responsibility" for U.N. actions.

Gromyko stated the Soviet position on U.N. financing to a newsman who asked if he expected the assembly to approve the July 20 advisory opinion of the World Court that all U.N. members are obliged to pay for the special peacekeeping operations in the Congo and the Middle East.

"The only thing I can say," Gromyko remarked, "is that we are not going to pay for this—not one penny. Why should we pay for the crimes they committed in the Congo... the colonialists and their agents? It is against our policy, against our convictions."

The Communist members of the 21-member steering committee—the Soviet Union, Poland and Romania—lost on two issues Thursday as the committee recommended the division of various issues for debate by the assembly and its seven working committees.

The United States got the Hungarian question assigned to the special political committee rather than the assembly. That will mean an earlier debate, perhaps before the U.S. congressional election Nov. 6.

Governor Who Stopped Negro Not Mentioned

HATTIESBURG, Miss. (AP)—The Justice Department asked today for federal contempt of court citations against all 13 members of the State College Board for failure to enroll Negro James H. Meredith in the University of Mississippi.

A hearing was set for Monday at New Orleans.

The Justice Department, moving swiftly in the wake of Gov. Ross Barnett's personal refusal to admit the 29-year-old Negro to the school Thursday, put its request before a three-judge panel of the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals here.

The appeals court judges are here for a hearing in another case. Thursday night, barely hours after Barnett rejected the Negro Air Force veteran's application in a dramatic showdown on the campus at Oxford, the Justice Department asked U.S. Dist. Judge Sidney Mize at Meridian to cite the school's top leaders for contempt.

Mize set a hearing for 1:30 p. m. today and ordered these officials of the university to appear: Chancellor J. D. Williams, Jr.; Dean Arthur B. Lewis, and Registrar Robert B. Ellis. Lewis declined comment. Williams and Ellis could not be reached.

Three federal courts—reaching all the way up to the U.S. Supreme Court—had ordered Meredith's enrollment and the end of segregation at the 114-year-old institution.

But Barnett, clothed in the powers of the board and acting as registrar, rejected Meredith. Earlier, the governor had said he would go to jail, if necessary, to prevent the desegregation of the university where he took his own law degree.

But the federal government bypassed him in its legal counter-moves. A spokesman for the Justice Department in Washington, Edwin O. Guthman, said the federal government still held the board and the university officials—and not Barnett—responsible.

Meredith's own plans remained a mystery as the legal battle started again. He left the campus after Barnett turned him down.

The three appeals court judges—John Minor Wisdom, Griffin Bell and John R. Brown—issued their show-cause order against Thomas Jefferson Tubbs, chairman of the State College Board, and these other members:

Charles Dixon Fair, Robert Bruce Smith II, Harry Gordon Carpenter, Tally D. Riddell, James Napolean Lipscomb, Dr. Verner Smith Holmes, S. R. Evans, William Orlando Stone, Malcolm Mette Roberts, Ira Lamar Morgan, Edgar Ray Izard and Leon Lowrey.

The order stated simply that "it appears that 'each of the defendants above named have failed and refused to comply with the terms of this court's orders.'"

In another action, the Justice Department asked the appeals court judges also to cite the three university officials named in Mize's order of Thursday night.

Governor Who

University officials claimed they had turned over their power to the 4-year-old governor who vowed to go to jail before seeing the university integrated. But the Justice Department postponed a showdown with Barnett by omitting his name in its contempt proceeding. Previous court orders that Meredith be enrolled were directed at university officials, Gutthman said. "Our position is that they still have that responsibility," he said.

A Justice Department spokesman said the government's position is that Barnett actions "have no legal effect."

The Justice Department disclosed contents of a 400-word telegram sent to the 13 members of the board trustees, the chancellor, the dean and registrar. The telegram said neither Meredith nor the attorney general had been able to get any commitment from university officials that Meredith would be re-enrolled. It recited the legal steps in the case and the government's position and advised the officials that the department's purpose was to see court orders were obeyed "peaceably."

Foreign Aid

Development loan funds took the worst shellacking. While the President requested $1.25 billion the House approved $775 million. Thick slices were lopped off the requests for development grants, military assistance, the alliance for progress and the President's contingency fund. The administration counterattack begins today when Secretary of State Dean Rusk testifies behind closed doors to the Senate Appropriations Committee. House leaders steered clear while the three Cuban amendments were rammed through Thursday night. They evidently hope the Senate will strike them or at least tone them down. The most restrictive amendment was offered by Rep. Walter Rogers, D-Tex. It would deny foreign aid to any country whose ships carry goods of any kind to Cuba.

Jailbreaker, Aid Back at Benton

BENTON, Ark. (AP)—A jailbreaker and the man believed to have helped him escape were captured early today about three hours after the break. Grady Earl Sanders, 22, the escapee, and James McGill, 19, of North Little Rock, were apprehended after bloodhounds traced them to some woods near Lonsdale, just inside the Garland City line about 15 miles southeast of Benton. Deputy Sheriff J. W. McClintock said McGill came to the Saline County Jail on the pretext of visiting Sanders and begged the radio operator, Walter Comstock, with a soft drink bottle. Comstock was the only one on duty at the time. McGill took Comstock's pistol and keys, McClintock said, and unlocked Sanders' cell. Bloodhounds from Cummings Prison Farm were brought in to aid in the search. McClintock said there were several other prisoners in the same cell with Sanders, including two who were charged with burglary in the same case as Sanders. None left, although the door was left open. To Mars by 70, Space Man Says VIENNA, Austria (AP)—Glenn T. Seaborg, head of the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission, said today the United States plans to send a manned nuclear space ship to Mars about 1970. Seaborg told a panel of scientists at the general conference of the International Atomic Energy Agency that the space ship will carry a couple of men to land on Mars for a one-month exploration and return them to earth in a one-year trip.

Round trip from Detroit to the end of the Baja Peninsula is over 8,000 miles.

Millions of years ago nature fashioned a proving ground for trucks that man can never duplicate. Today it is known as the Baja (bah' hah) California Peninsula, Mexico. These pictures give you only a bare idea of the place. The road is fine for 140 miles below the U.S. border. Then the beating begins. Rocks and hard-baked ruts bang, jab and jerk the trucks from stem to stern. Loose sand makes them struggle and strain. Dust chokes them. Heat roasts them. Rivers drench them. The Baja Run took this Chevrolet truck caravan 17 days to go the 1,066 miles. All the trucks performed magnificently. Not one was forced to drop out because of mechanical difficulty. Trucks that can take this kind of beating can take on your toughest truck jobs. Come in now and see tough quality-built '63 Chevrolet trucks with all their new improvements.

Husband Finds Marriage Mayhem

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: My wife and I are married a little over a year. During this period we have separated on at least half a dozen occasions. Filing for divorce, then canceling our petitions.

I am 31, she is 30. Together we argue and fight. When separate, I'm riddled with phone calls from her begging me to come back, promising to be the kind of wife she should be. If I do feel sorry and take her back, we get along for a week, then it's mayhem all over again.

She has a 5-year-old son out of wedlock. One of our problems is that this boy is worse than Dennis the Menace. I'm never allowed to correct him without a big fight from her, even though, in everyone's opinion, my methods of training are sound and reasonable. She says that her son will always come first with her because he is her own flesh and blood. Most of the time I feel as if I'm only good for paying the household expenses and nothing more.

I have worked and provided us with a beautiful home and furniture. But, her actions caused us to have a foreclosure on our home; in addition, she gave all our furniture to her relatives. Her constant nagging has caused me to take a sick leave from my job due to nervousness.

She still says she will always love me, and refuses to divorce under any circumstances. If this is love, believe me I want hate. What do you say? —Unhappy

Dear Unhappy: In the short space of one year, you have filed divorce papers several times and each time pulled back. Is that because deep down you don't really want to give up your marriage?

You argue and fight, but you also make up rather fast. I know a married couple who have occupied the same house for 20 years and never in all that time exchanged one word, such was their hatred for each other. So fighting and arguing can be a sign of love, of caring enough to shout and storm. The energy that goes into all this, however, can be diverted into more constructive channels.

The key to your marital difficulties is your wife's child. At best, the role of stepfather is tough. When the boy is illegitimate...

Prize Winning Constitution Week Essays

In connection with Constitution Week the prize winning essays selected by the DAR from American History students follow:

What The Constitution Means To Me

By JOE KEESEY

Cornerstone. Foundation. Building block. These are some of the words to describe the Constitution of the United States. But, to me, the Constitution is more than these. In three points, the Constitution was the beginning of the past, is the rock of the Present, and will be the hope of the Future — for the United States and the world.

The Constitution was the beginning of the past of this nation as a united group of people ruling themselves. This document was the blueprint for an impossible type of government, one never seen before or since the United States in the history of the world. It made possible a nation governed by a system of the people, by the people and for the people, with the Grace of God.

The Constitution is the rock of the present United States because in a world of change, turmoil, revolution and oppression, it has remained almost the same with only twenty-two minor changes in 175 years. Because of this document, we are still a free people, free to become the greatest nation in the history of Mankind, free to help others to attain their goal of self-determination and education for all, free to combat oppression and tyranny, and most of all, free to thank God for giving us the opportunity to do these things.

Based on the belief of the Constitution past and present, I firmly believe that, through the for school buses. —Martin M. Coon.

Dear Martin: Youngsters who perform good deeds should do so as a matter of course and instinct and not because they may get a pat on the back. But I do agree that in unusual instances, such as the Baltimore boy, public recognition is well deserved.

All too often we underestimate the inventiveness and civic spirit of our junior citizens; yet, fortunately for our country, there are many more of this type of youngster than the juvenile delinquents who hog headlines.

Remember — this is a 5-year-old, helpless, caught in a dilemma not of his making. He needs your patient understanding, and so does your wife. You married with eyes open.

Explain to your wife that you want to be a good father to her boy (she may, desperately need this reassurance), but point out that you can't do the job well without the necessary authority. Settle with her once and for all, just what responsibilities each of you should bear toward the boy. This child who is now tearing this marriage apart can be the means of putting it back together again.

Dear Helen: Everyone has a program for delinquent kids. Why not a program for good kids? Because of the lack, the good deeds and accomplishments of normal youngsters are often overlooked and ignored.

I suggest that in each town a committee be formed composed of the mayor, police, fire departments, labor, management, commerce, industry, education and all interested groups, and that this committee make recommendations for awards to children who performed a good deed or accomplishment. One example would be the Baltimore fourth-grader who suggested seat belts.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "Teenage code."

Grace of God, the Constitution will be the hope of the future, not just of the United States, but of the world.

I believe the document will remain basically unchanged, and therefore be able to meet the needs of a constantly growing and changing nation. If it is able to do this, as I am sure it will, the United States will remain the great world power it is today. This power will be able to overthrow the forces of tyranny and oppression plaguing the world today. When this is accomplished, the long task of preparing nations for freedom will begin. This will be led by the United States and the United Nations. This task involves education, improvement of food-producing facilities and up-to-date of government systems. There can be accomplished through the great resources and reserves of the United States. The Constitution has given us the chance to build up these resources in complete freedom, thus it would be indirectly responsible for the glorious freedom of the world! The crowning achievement of the Constitution, however, would still be to come. When the newly freed nations were ready for a written play of government, what better model could be found than the United States Constitution?

Whether or not these things will happen, I cannot tell, but if they do, I feel that the United States of America will be the leader in them. This country will be backed by the most wonderful and intelligent written work ever to come from the minds of modern man, the National Constitution!

In summary, the Constitution is the foundation and support of a great nation and the ideal for that ideal of ideals, a free world.

What The Constitution Means To Me

By SARAH BAGLEY

The Constitution of the United States is considered to be the greatest literary writing other than the Bible. This is understandable inasmuch that it has been upheld for over 175 years and has survived numerous wars and the obstacles that are always present. Just the fact that it has withstood these disadvantages is proof enough that it is more than just the words that keep it alive in the hearts of Americans.

The founders of our nation must have had a great insight to develop such a literary composition that could and does apply to our modern way of living now. In their highest hopes and expectations how could they have ever dreamed that our nation would become the great land it is? Their faith alone in their country is enough evidence to show what a great heritage we have. We must not neglect this heritage but Calvin Coolidge has said something that I believe our forefathers knew and practiced. "All growth depends upon activity. There is no growth physically or intellectually without effort, and effort means work..." In order for our nation to grow each of us must realize the deep significance in this statement. The Constitution of the United States gives us the security to know that we may strive to grow and reach the objectives and ideals we establish. This is the real basis of what the Constitution means to me as a young American.

In this process of personal growth, whether it be physical, mental, or spiritual, we need certain directions. The Constitution is this direction for our entire nation of over 180 million people. It serves to insure our personal growth in a free country of democracy. In the hustle and bustle of our present day living, we tend to take for granted the democratic way of life that has so carefully been handed down to us through the years. We seem to forget exactly what does make our way of life

Rusk, Gromyko Plan Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko will meet in New York early next week, probably on Tuesday, the State Department said today.

Press officer Lincoln White said the meeting will be one of a series Rusk will have with foreign ministers at the United Nations.

Lumber Firm Sold

HAMPTON, Ark. (AP)—Joe L. Fowler of Warren has purchased one of Calhoun County's largest industries, the Neal Lumber Co. sawmill. The mill, about 1 1/2 miles west of Hampton, has been in operation since March 1960 and has an annual payroll of $100,000. Fowler said he plans to expand operations. The mill now employs about 40 persons. Purchase price was not disclosed.

so rich and satisfying.

To have a real democracy conscientious people must uphold a government of high standards and ideals. Just such a type of government is set up in our Constitution. It is an elaborate system of checks and balances to keep our country free of any type of political power. The liberties and securities given the people are well defined in the first 10 amendments or the Bill of Rights. In return for these we have certain responsibilities to our country. These amendments assure us that we have certain rights and privileges if we do not abuse them.

With the opportunities I know I have because of the Constitution of the United States, I feel I can grow into a good citizen. The Constitution assures me that I can grow physically, mentally and spiritually to meet the needs of my country. When God gave us life, he gave us liberty. To me the Constitution means that I can have and use this liberty!

Balk Defeats Giants, Margin Now 4 Games

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

That was the sound a dismayed Dick Lenny heard in the ninth inning Thursday night as his balk beat St. Louis who his San Francisco teammates 5-3 and drop the trailing, second-place Giants four games behind National League leading Los Angeles.

Lenny, who came on in relief for the Giants in the eighth, was touched for consecutive singles leading off the ninth, putting runners on first and third with the Giants ahead 4-3.

Bill White dug in at the plate, and Lenny went in to his windup. Pop! the ball slipped from his grasp, dropping at his feet. The umpires ruled it a balk. Flood scored the tying run and pinch runner Mike Shannon moved to second with the potential game-winner.

Don Larsen replaced Lenny on the mound, and intentionally walked White. Ken Boyer ruined the strategy with a single that sent Shannon across.

The Giants have lost seven of their last eight games. The Dodgers, not scheduled, reduced their magic pennant-clinching number to six with nine games remaining.

Any combination of six Los Angeles victories and/or San Francisco defeats will give the Dodgers their first pennant since 1959.

Cincinnati's defending champions moved closer to elimination as Pittsburgh used an error and a two-run double by rookie Bob Bailey to come from behind and beat the Reds 4-3 with three runs in the ninth inning. Cincinnati is six games back with seven to play.

Philadelphia and Chicago split a doubleheader, the Phillies winning 3-1 before the Cubs took the nightcap 4-1. Houston defeated New York 7-2 and 5-4 in 12 innings as the Mets tied an NL record with 115 losses.

In the American League, second-place Minnesota lost to Detroit 5-1 and fell 4½ games behind the first-place New York Yankees, who were idle. Cleveland defeated Kansas City 5-2 and the Chicago White Sox downed Boston 6-4.

Bob Purkey, trying to nail his 23rd victory for the Reds, held a 3-1 lead going into the ninth, but was chased when Dick Groat singled and Bob Skinner walked. Bill Henry took over, struck out the next two batters and got Don Clemen on ground to third base.

But Eddie Kasko let the ball get by him as a run scored and Bailey followed with his two-run double. Rookie Dennis Bennett (7-9) won the opener for the Phillies with a five-hitter. In the nightcap, Ernie Banks scored the first Chicago run and accounted for two others with his 36th homer.

The Colts scored six unearned runs in the first game to whip the Mets' Jay Hook (8-18). Hal Smith provided the Colts with the second game triumph, hitting a three-run homer in the seventh and driving in the clincher in the 12th with a single.

Americans Win Second Cup Race

NEWPORT, R. I. (AP) — "Nothing's broken — only our hearts."

They were Australian hearts, and it will take the kind of weather that sends a landlubber to the nearest cozy fireside to mend them again.

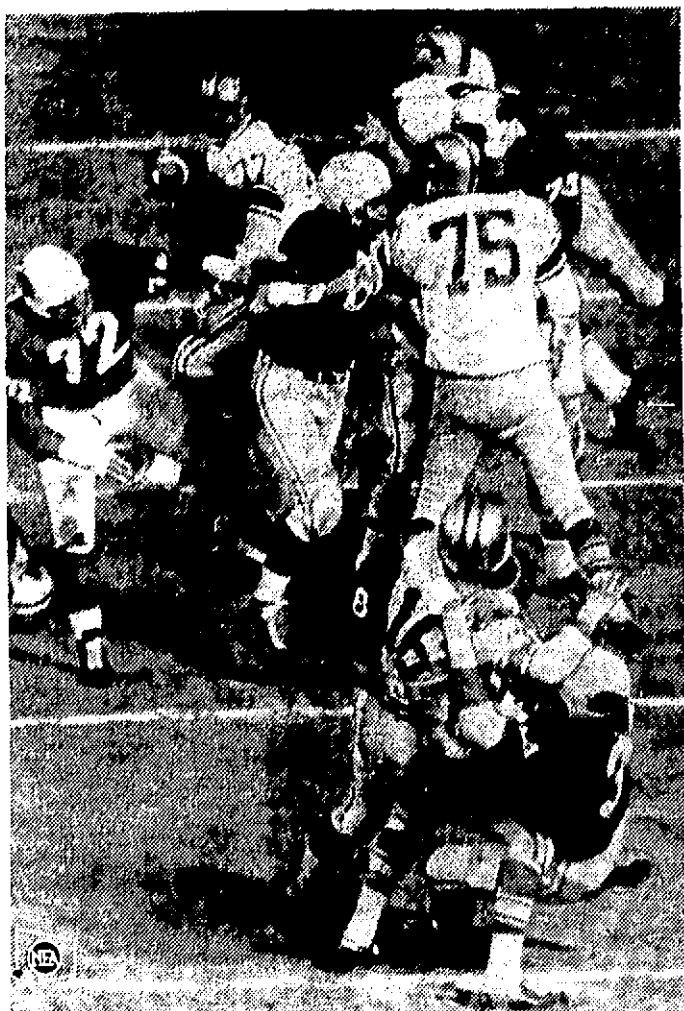

Doug Fairfax, portly spokesman for the Australian group that mounted a million-dollar challenge for the ugly old America's Cup, described the state of Australian equipment and hearts late Thursday after the yacht Gretel struggled into Newport harbor, badly-beaten, behind Weatherly, the American defender.

The victory, by the margin of 8 minutes and 40 seconds—about a mile of calm Atlantic water—gave Weatherly a 2-1 margin in the series. There will be no race today—the Australians again having exercised their privilege of skipping a day. The boats will tangle again Saturday.

The Americans will take today off, but the Australians will be out on the water all day, working to learn still more about Gretel, built in Sydney to challenge for the cup that represents world supremacy in yachting and never has been lost by America in the 111 years that men have sailed in pursuit of it.

The fourth race will be over the same triangular course on which Gretel scored her only victory Tuesday. Weatherly ran off with the first race, over the up-wind-downwind course used for Thursday's runaway.

The Chinese were transporting natural gas in bamboo pipes as early as 4900 B. C.

AFTER THE BALL—Quarterback Milt Plum, 16, of the Detroit Lions fights off two tacklers after getting pass away against Cardinals at Busch Stadium in St. Louis. Tackle Dan LaRose, 77, an ineligible receiver, can only look at the football thrown by Plum as the pass goes incomplete.

Big Sendoff to Porkers at Pep Rally

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The University of Arkansas gave its football Razorbacks a rousing sendoff Thursday night at a pep rally called by some observers "the largest in history."

Ready or not, the Razorbacks were scheduled to leave today on the first leg of a trip to Little Rock for their opener against Oklahoma State in War Memorial Stadium Saturday night.

The Porkers will spend tonight in Hot Springs, then go on to Little Rock Saturday. The Hot Springs layover is traditional for Little Rock games.

Coach Frank Broyles told a standing room only crowd at the pep rally that the Hogs' feat of winning or sharing three straight Southwest Conference championships had every other team in the league pointing for them.

"We accept the challenge," Broyles said to rousing cheers. The Porkers worked in shorts for 30 minutes Thursday polishing play execution and assignments.

Broyles, who generally has made pessimistic statements after recent drills, said Thursday, "We have accomplished a lot this week, especially since we quit working so hard. The boys seem to be getting the spring back in their legs. They were pretty leg-weary after the two-day practices."

Broyles posted starting lineups for the Oklahoma State game and one sophomore, George Walker of Leland, Miss., was listed as wingback on the two-way Big Red unit.

Walker sustained a knee injury this fall and he was on the Wild Hog, or defensive unit, for a time. Broyles said Billy Moore, who is recuperating from a cracked rib, definitely will play quarterback on the Big Red with sophomores Bill Gray of Helena and Gordon Guest of Pine Bluff alternating at the position on the Tush Hog (offensive) unit.

Freddy Marshall of Memphis will play the quarterback (safety) position on the Wild Hog (defensive) unit.

Relative humidity usually is lower in the winter because cold air does not hold water as well as warm air.

PICTURE PUZZLE—An intrepid crew member of the Gretel came close to getting a dunking in the waters of Narragansett Bay off Newport, R.I., while clinging to rigging to photograph fellow crew members. The Australian challenger for the America's Cup worked out in the more sheltered waters of the Bay because of heavy weather off-shore. She was preparing to meet the American yacht Weatherly in the best four of seven series.

Idle Yanks Gain as Twins Lose Game

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Memo to the Minnesota Twins: When you're in a pennant fight with the New York Yankees, don't give anything away. They don't.

For the second time in three games the Twins blew one to the Detroit Tigers Thursday, giving up three unearned runs in the first inning and taking a 5-1 setback.

Minnesota, a surprise challenger to the Yankees in the American League race this season, is 4½ games back in second place, with the magic number dwindled to four. Any New York victories and/or Twin defeats adding up to four and the Yankee perennial are champions again.

The Yankees, off Thursday, have eight games remaining. They open a three-game set with the White Sox at Chicago tonight, then finish up at home with two against Washington and three against Chicago.

The Twins have seven left, three at Baltimore starting tonight, one at Cleveland and three at home against the Orioles.

Minnesota handed Detroit two unearned runs Tuesday and the Tigers hung on for a 2-1 victory. Thursday, Vic Power's first-inning error plus key hits by Al Kaline and Norm Cash and the Twins' failure to crack through on their own opportunities doomed Minnesota.

Pedro Ramos pitched a five-hitter as Cleveland beat Kansas City 5-2 and Chicago tripped Boston 6-4 with two runs in the eighth inning.

In the National League, St. Louis' 5-4 decision over San Francisco dropped the runnerup Giants four full games behind the idle Los Angeles Dodgers; Pittsburgh nipped Cincinnati 4-3; Philadelphia and Chicago split, the Phillies winning the opener 3-1 and the Cubs taking the nightcap 4-1; and Houston beat New York's last-place Mets 7-2 and 5-4 in 12 innings, pushing the Mets to a league record-tying 115 losses.

The Indians posted Kansas City's no-walk pitcher, Bill Fischer, for nine of their hits and all five of their runs in the first five innings. The right-hander extended his major league record of consecutive innings without a base on balls to 73 but also suffered his sixth straight loss.

Jim Landis' sacrifice fly in the eighth broke a 4-4 tie between the White Sox and the Red Sox, and Chicago picked up a cushion when another run scored on Eddie Bressoud's error.

BATTING — Al Kaline, Tigers, hit his 28th home run and collected two singles, leading Detroit to a 5-1 victory over Minnesota that dropped the second-place Twins 4½ games behind the American League-leading New York Yankees.

PITCHING — Dennis Bennett, Phillies, checked Chicago Cubs on five hits, striking out six, in 3-1 victory.

Los Angeles over Chicago — Even without Jon Arnett, the Rams improved defense and over all backfield and end talent is ready to burst loose. Bears full back Rick Casares, star of last week's victory, is hobbled and may not play.

Baltimore over Minnesota — Colts still not sound ball club with lack of power runner, but quarterback John Unitas still has that passing magic and will find Vikings softened up a bit after their game against Green Bay.

Boston over Denver — Tonight, the Broncos' Cinderella act in the American Football League will close after two victories when they go against Patriots' tough defense that shackled Houston's all-
